Dear friend and Bro: in the vntchangable blessed truth of our god, which is from everlasting to everlasting, our all god blessed, for our, in wth my salutation, onto thee, and in the Cymes of vnforsed Love, I deawly embrace thee, for in this Love and Life, ~~now~~ we are deawly to behold one vnto another, for it is our all gra-and Love, our Rocks and foundation, and for stone that binds for our, Christ Jesus, to whom be glory and Honour, for our more, a more my Love is to thy dear wife, and mother in Law with all dear friends, who may inquire after me, I am verie well & in way blessed to the name of the Lord for our, I have been as far as Exeter, and so to Bristol and Gloucester, and have had good friends, and so have been the last night, and say with Ja: Harrison, who is yetty well now of his cond, we have been at the 2000, meeting just now, where we found dear G. f. I desire to hear from you, how you all do, by the first, and whether you have heard from Lo: Haydock, for with my Love vnto you all I take my Love and bids ^{you} fare well in the Lord
